

Nigro Development announced Jeffrey Miracle as development analyst. Miracle will be responsible for creating and updating proforma financial statements and valuing existing and potential investment opportunities. Miracle most recently interned for Merrill Lynch where his duties included analysis of equities, bonds and mutual fund families, as well as analyzing proper investment distributions for Merrill Lynch clients.